SUMMER SIZZLES DAY CAMP

SUMMER 2003

History is HOT and filled with COOL activities this summer at the Michigan Historical Museum. Your state museum in Lansing is offering new and exciting day camp opportunities for your children this summer!

The Michigan Historical Museum is offering exciting week-long activities. Your child (ages 9 -12) can participate for one day or a full week of special programs and/or new one-day and three-day history packages.

KEEP THIS SUMMER PLANNING CALENDAR

Choose a day or a week to fit your summer schedule. Choose morning or afternoon sessions.

MONDAYS: Archaeology

Join archaeologists Ron Burk and Mike Mauer in a hands-on discovery of the work archaeologists do to discover information about past cultures in Michigan. Learn about life at the time of the glaciers, create clay pottery and observe the skills of flintknapping.

THE THREE-DAY HISTORY CAMPS

The Boys and Girls of Summer. Explore the history and excitement of baseball in this fun-filled three-day camp. Discover the evolution of baseball as you talk with a team member who plays baseball in the style of the 1860s. Visit with an umpire and discover the trials and triumphs of being a professional umpire. Find out what challenges faced the women's baseball leagues of the late 1940s and 1950s as you visit with members of the All-American Girls Professional Baseball League. Create baseball signs to cheer on Lansing's local team. End the session by attending a Lansing Lugnuts baseball game!

You must choose one of the two sessions listed below.

Session 1:
